Gulf & Fraser Foundation donates over $298,000 to local organizations

Burnaby, BC

In 2022, the Gulf & Fraser Foundation (the Foundation) distributed over $298,000 to 31 local organizations. The Foundation looks to support charities and non-profits that build on the values of Gulf & Fraser to make a positive and lasting impact in the community. It promotes programs that specifically strengthen community health, social care, and environmental sustainability.

“At Gulf & Fraser, supporting our communities is at the heart of what we do. We’re proud to continue our support for local charities, non-profit groups and organizations who truly benefit from this funding”, say Bill Kiss and Jeff Shewfelt, Co-CEOs, Gulf & Fraser.

The chosen 31 organizations are located across the Lower Mainland and Fraser Valley of BC and work to address a wide range of groups and issues impacting our society. The selected organizations include:

- Burnaby Neighbourhood House Society - $10,000
- Cyrus Centre - $20,000
- Institute of Applied Design & Technology Education - $15,000
- Langley Care Society - $18,700
- Lower Mainland Down Syndrome Society - $17,506
- SOS Children’s Society - $10,000

“Since 2002, the Foundation has supported local groups both large and small. Our community investment helps us empower our communities and make a positive impact for so many”, add Kiss and Shewfelt.

The Foundation is one of the many ways Gulf & Fraser invests in local communities. We also give back through financial literacy initiatives, scholarship opportunities, and regular donations. Applications for funding through the Foundation will open in January 2023 and close in April, with the winners being announced in June. See more information on our website.
